ABSTRACT OF SOME OF THE BY-LAWS RELATIVE TO FELLOWS.

EVERY Candidate for Admission must be proposed by three or more Fellows, who shall certify, from personal knowledge, his Christian name, surname, rank, profession, qualifications and residence. Before a Candidate is proposed, it is the duty of the proposer to make known to him that, if elected, he cannot be admitted until he shall have paid the admission fee of Five Guineas, and until he shall also have paid Twenty Guineas in lieu of all future payments, or have given a bond for the regular payment of Two Guineas annually; but if he be not usually resident in Britain, the composition of Twenty Guineas must at once be paid.

Every person elected a Fellow must appear personally to be admitted, within two months after his Election, or within such further time as, upon special application, the Society or Council may grant; and in default of his not so appearing his Election shall be void.

Annual Contributions fall due on the 24th of May for the year preceding; but no Fellow elected on or after the 1st of February in any year, shall be required to pay the Annual Contribution in the same year.

Fellows failing to pay their Annual Contributions within twelve months after the same fall due, are liable to legal prosecution for the recovery thereof, and also to ejection from the Society.

The Fellows are entitled to receive, gratis, all Volumes, or Parts of Volumes, of the Transactions that may be published after their Election, if they shall have paid the Composition in lieu of Annual Payments, or after they shall have paid one yearly Contribution; and they may be supplied with any of the Volumes published before their Election, at a reduction of 25 per cent. under the common selling prices, as follows, viz.

| Volume. | When Published. | Price to the Public. | Price to Fellows. |
|---|---|---|---|
| I. | 1791 | £1 1 0 | £0 16 0 |
| II. | 1794 | 1 5 0 | 0 19 0 |

| XIV. Part I. | 1823 | 1 1 0 | 0 16 0 |

Vol. VII. contains the Charter and By-Laws of the Society.

Members are to apply to Mr. DON, the Librarian, for such Volumes as they may be entitled to, or be desirous to purchase; but no Volume can be delivered, gratis, to a Fellow whose yearly Contributions are in arrear, nor can any be delivered unless applied for within five years from the time of publication.

The Library and Museum are open to all Members of the Society between the Hours of Twelve and Four, every day, Saturdays excepted; and Fellows may introduce their Friends in person, but not otherwise.

The Ordinary Meetings are held on the third Tuesday in January, the first and third Tuesdays in February, March and April, the first Tuesday in May, and on the first and third Tuesdays in June, November and December, at Eight o'Clock in the Evening; and every Member may introduce a Friend.

The Anniversary Meeting for the Election of Council and Officers is held on the 24th of May, or on the following day if the 24th should happen to be a Sunday.

☞ Communications intended to be made to this Society may be addressed to the President, or to the Secretary, at the House of the Society, Soho-square, London.

ABSTRACT OF SOME OF THE BY-LAWS RELATIVE TO FELLOWS.

EVERY Candidate for Admission must be proposed by three or more Fellows, who shall certify, from personal knowledge, his qualifications, Christian name, surname, rank, profession and residence. Before a Candidate is proposed, it is the duty of the proposer to make known to him that, if elected, he cannot be admitted until he shall have paid the admission fee of Five Guineas, and until he shall also have paid Twenty Guineas in lieu of all future payments, or have given a bond for the regular payment of Two Guineas annually; but if he be not usually resident in Britain, the composition of Twenty Guineas must at once be paid.

Every person elected a Fellow must appear personally to be admitted, within two months after his Election, or within such further time as, upon special application, the Society or Council may grant; and in default of his so appearing his Election shall be void.

Annual Contributions fall due on the 24th of May for the year preceding; but no Fellow elected on or after the 1st of February in any year shall be required to pay the Annual Contribution in the same year.

Fellows failing to pay their Annual Contributions within twelve months after the same fall due are liable to legal prosecution for the recovery thereof, and also to ejection from the Society.

The Fellows are entitled to receive, gratis, all Volumes, or Parts of Volumes, of the Transactions that may be published after their Election, if they shall have paid the Composition in lieu of Annual Payments, or after they shall have paid one yearly Contribution; and they may be supplied with any of the Volumes published before their Election, at a reduction of 25 per cent. under the common selling prices, as follows, viz.

| Volume. | When Published. | Price to the Public. | Price to Fellows. |
|---|---|---|---|
| I. | 1791 | £1 1 0 | £0 16 0 |

| III. | 1825 | 1 10 0 | 1 2 6 |

Vol. VII. contains the Charter and By-Laws of the Society.

Members are to apply to Mr. DON, the Librarian, for such Volumes as they may be entitled to, or be desirous to purchase; but no Volume can be delivered, gratis, to a Fellow whose yearly Contributions are in arrear, nor can any be delivered unless applied for within five years from the time of publication.

The Library and Museum are open to all Members of the Society between the Hours of Twelve and Four, every day, Saturdays excepted; and Fellows may introduce their Friends in person, but not otherwise.

Members may obtain the Loan of Books from the Library with leave of the Society; but no more than Two Volumes can be borrowed at one time, nor is any Book to be kept longer than six weeks.

The Ordinary Meetings are held on the third Tuesday in January, the first and third Tuesdays in February, March and April, the first Tuesday in May, and on the first and third Tuesdays in June, November and December, at Eight o'Clock in the Evening; and every Member may introduce a Friend.

The Anniversary Meeting for the Election of Council and Officers is held on the 24th of May, or on the following day if the 24th should happen to be a Sunday.

☞ Communications intended to be made to this Society may be addressed to the President, or to the Secretary, at the House of the Society, Soho-square, London.
